

The Wirt and Mary Cornwell Prize

The Wirt and Mary Cornwell Prize in Mathematics was established to be awarded to “a student at the University of Michigan who shall have demonstrated the greatest intellectual curiosity and given the most promise of original study and creative work in Mathematics”