

William LeVeque Award in Number Theory

This award is given to an undergraduate who excels in the study of number theory. William J. LeVeque was a Professor in Mathematics and served as Chair of the Mathematics Department from 1967-70. He later moved on to become the Executive Director of the American Mathematical Society until his retirement from that post around 1990. This award is in recognition of his contributions to number theory.