

Margaret S. Huntington Scholarship

The family of Margaret S. Huntington has established a scholarship program to call attention to careers in Actuarial Science and the Mathematics of Risk. Qualifications for this scholarship include completion of a first calculus class in the Fall Term with a high grade; completion of a 5-part questionnaire; and submission of a short essay on “The Role of Actuaries in Today’s Society.”