

Figure 6.3 Carrillo & Lipman's algorithm allows the search for optimal alignments to be restricted to a subset of the multidimensional programming matrix, shown here as three-dimensional. The sets  $B^{kl}$  are shown in dark grey, and the cells in the matrix to which the search can be confined are outlined in black.