Master of Science in Quantitative Finance and Risk Management

The University of Michigan’s Departments of Mathematics and Statistics jointly oversee a new 3-term, 36-credit interdisciplinary graduate program in Quantitative Finance and Risk Management.

Master advanced mathematical and statistical methods.

» Intensive core courses taught by distinguished faculty in mathematics and statistics
» Sequential curriculum providing thorough foundation in computational finance, financial mathematics, stochastic processes, and statistical analysis
» Electives in economics, finance, engineering, math, and statistics

Join an elite community at a world-class university.

» Small cohorts of approximately 30 students new students each year
» Diverse, vibrant, and globally-engaged campus
» Pipeline to one of the largest alumni networks in the world

Be among the Leaders and Best.

» Preparation to become a leading problem solver in the financial industry
» Career opportunities as quantitative analysts, traders, and risk managers » Assistance in finding summer internships and full-time jobs

Apply to the Quant Program today.

department.math.lsa.umich.edu/quantfin quantfinms@umich.edu